The MPEP states:

2001.06(c) Information From Related Litigation [R-2]

Where the subject matter for which a patent is being sought is or has been involved in litigation, the existence of such litigation and any other material information arising therefrom must be brought to the attention of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Examples of such material information include evidence of possible prior public use or sales, questions of inventorship, prior art, allegations of "fraud," "inequitable conduct," and "violation of duty of disclosure." Another example of such material information is any assertion that is made during litigation which is contradictory to assertions made to the examiner. Environ Prods., Inc. v. Total Containment, Inc., 43 USPQ2d 1288, 1291 (E.D. Pa. 1997). Such information might arise during litigation in, for example, pleadings, admissions, discovery including interrogatories, depositions, and other documents and testimony.

Applicants believe it is possible that information material to the above-identified application may arise in the course of the above-identified litigation. Thus, the purpose of this disclosure is to bring to the attention of the Patent and Trademark Office the existence of the litigation so that the Examiner in the above-identified application can make an independent inquiry into the litigation if the Examiner deems it necessary. It is Applicants' intent to disclose any material information that may arise in the future from the above-identified litigation.

A copy of the Compliant and Answer in the above-identified litigation are identified in the attached PTO Form 1449.

Accompanying this Information Disclosure Statement is the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(p).

The Commissioner is authorized to charge the $180.00 fee in payment of the Information Disclosure Statement Fee to Deposit Account No. 504480. If it is determined that any additional fees are due, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge such fees to Deposit Account 504480 (Order No. IGT1P480X2).

Respectfully submitted,
